WIN FROM DES MOINES BY 7 TO 2

Pickering Ready with Stick, but Also Loses Chance to Pile Score Higher with All Bases Full.

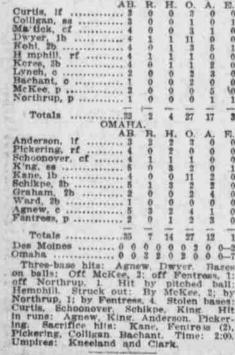

DES MOINES, Ia., April 28.-(Special Telegram.)-Omaha had a batting streak today and swatted Pitcher McKee all over the lot, winning by 7 to 2.

Eleven hits were made off "Mac" in seven innings and three off Northup, who succeeded him. Fentress pitched an airtight game, holding Des Moines to only four safe ones. King's bingle of an easy grounder in the fifth was the visitors' only

Omaha started things in the third. Singles by Agnew, Anderson, Schoonover and King scored the first three. In the fourth Schipke singled to center, Graham was out at first and the captain scored on Agnew's three-bagger to left. The latter scored on Anderson's hot one through Kahl's error, Anderson's pass and Pickering's safe one to center scored Agnew in the sixth. Omaha had bases full in the seventh, but Pickering fixzled on a weak grounder to second, Des Moines was blanked until the seventh. Manager Dwyer started then with a three-bagger, Hemphill took first on being hit and Kores singled, acoring Dwyer Hemphill tallied on Eachant's flyout

Baker and English have fought once before. This was a twentyround bout at San Francisco, which ended in a draw. English feels confident, say over the fence for a home run, putting his bis friends, that he can stop the "whiriteam in the lead, but in their half Pitts- wind" and he would like to have the opportunity of doing so right among his friends in the twin cities. Carl Marfesi, the matchmaker of the club, is ready to stage the ntest if Baker agrees to enter the lists.

FORT CROOK ATHLETIC MEET

First of Series of Outdoor Contests is Held Thursday.

COMPANY E FIRST IN SCALING Shelter Tent Pitching is Won by Com pany G and Company F Takes Marching Contest-Foot Racing and Fencing Results.

The quarterly field meet for the second quarter, 1911, was held at Fort Crook Thursday, beginning at 8.30 a. m. A large crowd was on hand to see the soldiers perform and the way they went through their different athletic exercises earned plenty of applause from the spectators. This meet was different from the last one, in that it was held out of doors, and the marching contest, 100-yard dash, 220-yard herdle race, fencing with rifle, wall scaling contest and shelter tent pitchhing having been added to the list of events. meet was in charge of Captain Samuel W. Noyes, Fourth infantry, with Captains John S. Switzer and Louis M. Nuttman. First Lieutenants J. De Camp Hall, Fourth infantry; Charles Abel, John K. Cowan. Reginald H. Kelley, second lieutenants; John P. Bubb, William E. Seibie, John H. Muncaster and George W. C. Whiting Fourth infantry, as judges. The clerk of the course was Second Lieutenant Arthur W. Lane; assistants to the clerk of the course, Sergeants Majors King and Goede, and announcer, First Sergeant Charles Lewis, Company H, Fourth infantry. Pringle Wins First Event.

The first event was the 100-yard dash, with eleven entries. The track was grass and very hard to run, the finals being between Privates Pringle, Fogarty and Fiser, with Pringle the winner in 11 seconds. The 220-yard hurdle was not contested closely, with only about seven entries, with only about twenty yards at the start two hits, one of them the poorest kind of fire which has been raging for the last placed at a distance of about every fifteen yards. The final was run between Musician Clendening and Private Brown, Clendening winning the race in 34 seconds The next event was shelter tent pitching. ... 30 3 34 6 1 three months' service in the Twenty-sixth with Second Victional Labor B. ex-junior champion; Joe Adams, present holder of the junior title, and Lawrence Bushman, a crack youngster. The fourth man is Bernard Smyth.

Smyth is at school, and his present thoughts are directed to capturing the laurels. He is acknowledged one of the best racquet wielders in the state and is captain of the Creighton team.

Nebraska comes much heralded with a team led by Captain Weaverling, who shoulders the title of state champion for the last two years. He will also offer a decided novelty in being a southpaw artist, a striking oddity in this game. The other members of the team are Messrs. Smith, Tate and Flory. The team arrives tonight, and each will be a guest of Messrs. Raphael Hamilton, Gerald Duffy, Ray Coombs, p... 3 0 0 2 0 Byrne and George Riley. The match will last throuhgout the day, starting in the morning at 10 a. m., the finals carried over to the afternoon.

An added attraction will be the base ball game in the afternoon between Creighton and Fort Crook on the campus adjoining the tennis courts.
